X

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission
To educate the public about the planet Mars and promote the scientific exploration and settlement of the planet by the United States, other countries, and private entities. By doing so to encourage young people to study science, technology, engineering, the arts, and math.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?
If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses
Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 65,352. including grants of $) (Revenue $ 61,988.)
Humans to Mars Summit: Explore Mars holds an annual conference called the Humans to Mars Summit (H2M). The conference brings together the top technical, scientific, government and academic experts working to develop the technologies and policies that will enable human missions to Mars to be implemented. Recently the conference has been expanded to include STEAM programming for middle school and high school students. The conference is open to the general public and is webcast simultaneously to hundreds of middle school and high school classrooms around the country. H2M is funded through corporate sponsorships, and a grant from NASA, and individual registration fees.

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 23,772. including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Achieving Mars is a program of ongoing workshops utilizing a global working group of more than sixty leaders from more than thirty government, industry and academic organizations. The goal of this initiative is to build stakeholder consensus on what is necessary to make human Mars exploration feasible, sustainable, and affordable within two decades. The first AM workshop was held in December of 2013 and there has been at least one annual meeting of the group since then. Approximately 60 professionals from the industrial and commercial sectors, academia, and NASA, along with European colleagues, participate in the workshop. These individuals were chosen to be representative of the breadth of interests in astronaut and robotic Mars exploration. The output of each annual workshop is a report that

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 16,965. including grants of $) (Revenue $)
Explore Mars has published an annual Humans to Mars Report (H2MR) since 2015. The report contains an annual summary of progress made and challenges to be overcome in attaining our goal of sending humans to Mars and establishing a permanent presence there. The H2MR provides updates on challenges, plus progress in areas such as mission architecture design and development, scientific discoveries, policy, public perception, international cooperation and competition, and new private capabilities. In addition to the printed report, Explore Mars maintains the H2MR website that archives support materials used to produce the printed report. The site serves as a valuable resource for interested parties and members of the public. Each annual report is presented at the annual H2M Summit. Each year, the report is

Part X, Line 2:

Uncertain tax positions are as follow: The Organization's exempt status has been revoked as of May 15, 2020 for not filing its Form 990 for three consecutive years (2017, 2018, 2019), and is currently seeking retroactive reinstatement. The Organization believes its exempt status will be fully reinstated. The Organization is filing its Form 990 after the due date (including any extensions), and believes it will qualify for reasonable cause for filing late. At the time these financial statements were issued, the Organization was assessed a peanalty and interest in the amount of $11,249. The Internal Revenue Service may impose a penalty of $20 per day for each day the return is late. The maximum penalty is $10,000, or 5 percent of the organization's gross receipts, whichever is less. The organization would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred. The Organization is subject to state filing requirements and is currently in process of filing said returns and any reinstatement provisions as required. State filing fees have been recorded as a liability in the financial statements in the total amount of $375. The organization's Form 990 is no longer subject to tax examination for years before 2016. Management believes that the organization has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements.
