The motivating factor to establish this project was influenced by the need to serve thousands of homeless and needy people who often have nowhere to relieve themselves, shower, or do laundry. With the outbreak of Covid-19 that has continued to wreak havoc on the lives of many people, HOW has been critical to providing homeless and needy persons with meals, mobile toilets, showers, and laundry services.

Adult Day Care is a community care facility that provides social support services to aging adults. Our facility allows caregivers the opportunity to continue working outside the home, obtain assistance with the basic physical and mental care of their aging loved one, and avoid the guilt that is often felt by placing a loved one in an institution. Our services afford caregivers some respite from what can be a "24/7" responsibility of caring for their loved ones. In addition, Bridging Hope's Adult Day Care recipients are afforded the opportunity to socially interact with their peers, participate in stimulating activities, and receive assistance with daily living activities with the utmost respect and dignity.
