Explanation: The accountant who prepared the 2020 tax form was unable to get his software to submit the form. He contacted me and told me to send in the form through the mail. I began to investigate by telephoning the IRS. A helpful agent discovered the problem: There was an error in the IRS database that said the organization had been terminated over 10 years ago. She was able to discover that around 10 years ago I had erroneously checked I.G that the organization was submitting both its Initial Return and its Final Return. So the organization was erroneously terminated. I was told over the phone that the error was successfully resolved since returns and taxes had been paid for all the succeeding years. I received no paperwork regarding this correction. However using ExpressTaxExempt's services I was able to submit the 2021 tax form and using EFTPS I was able to make my tax payments on time for both 2020 and 2021.
