| Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used | The organization provides mortgage free or discounted residential properties to active military, veteran, or surviving spouse. Applicants are required to show proof of military service and proof of income. Applicants are awarded assistance on the basis of need and availability of properties. Upon awarding homes, we provide financial education and housing counseling to ensure home recipients understand the responsibility of homeownership but also set up a budget and are able to keep and maintain the home. The organization provides rent, clothing, and other essential items to active military, veteran, and their families. Applicants for housing assistance are required to show proof of military service and proof of need. Their application is presented to the local chapter vetting committee, then approved by National staff. Documentation in the form of testimonial letters, photos, and videos are kept of the presentation of all grants to ensure the funds are used as intended. The organization provides travel assistance and alternative therapy to veterans in effort to reduce post-duty related suicides. Applicants for assistance are required to show proof of military service and proof of need. Therapeutic centers are also carefully vetted. Documentation in the form of testimonial letters, photos, and videos are kept of the presentation of the grants to ensure the funds are used as intended. |
