What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
We provide mental health and peer support to people who have lost family and community, income, and other support due to a change in beliefs. We also provide support for people who are exploring doubt or coping with their own changing beliefs. Our programs include a call and chat support line where people may talk with trained volunteers, a network of support groups who meet up in person and are facilitated by a trained volunteer, Secular Therapy Project which allows clients to find licensed mental health professionals who only use evidence-based practices and are vetted by our own team of volunteers and the Fall Excursion which is an intensive weekend workshop for those exploring other beliefs.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.
