| Part I Line 2    | The Foundation requires organizations who request funding to formally apply through an online application process. Within this process, organizations are asked to provide information pertaining to the funding request and the administration of the organization. Additionally, the Foundation researches the organization's request for funding through various research methods that may include online searches, phone interviews, and on-site visits. The Foundation requests that organizations maintain contact throughout the year by including the Foundation on the organization's mailing list, providing a thank you letter, and reporting on the success of the program that was funded by the Foundation. The Foundation monitors communications from organizations regularly. |
