Its purpose is to offer pregnant and parenting women a safe place to catch their breath and become stable and independent. To date, 33 women and 41 children have been housed for a total of 4,972 nights of homelessness relieved. Average stay is 4.8 months. The program includes spiritual formation, job training, life skills learning, and parenting education. All food and transportation is provided, as well as medical, dental, and vision assistance. Many volunteers from the local community invest in the women by teaching specific skills through classes offered monthly by spending one-on-one time as a mentor, and by helping residents obtain their own personal goals. Our desired end-result is to equip residents to be fully independent upon graduation from our program, which is approximately 8 months. When she leaves Anna House, she will have obtained full-time employment, improved her parenting skills, saved the money needed to have her own residence, and have her own reliable transportation.

Women who come in each week for coaching choose from a long list of curriculum topics such as parenting, finances, interviewing for a job, prenatal development, and navigating personal relationships. Family Resource Center offers free baby supplies diapers, wipes, formula, baby food, car seats, pack-n-plays, blankets, etc. In 2019, 84 individual clients were served over the course of 450 appointments.
