990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2:	Grants to individuals in foreign countries are in order to assist with travel and living expenses for those individuals involved in training and discipleship of foreign nationals in order to spread the gospel. Grant amounts are determined by country and regional leadership and submitted monthly to the US headquarters for approval and payment. On a regular and periodic basis grant reports are submitted to the US headquarters for review and approval. These reports include the grant amounts disbursed to individuals and amounts spent on living and travel expenses. These grant reports are reviewed by the CFO and Accounting Manager for accuracy and reviewed by the Executive Director and President for compliance with grant purpose. Grants to Biglife Europe were made to a related organization. Therefore, Biglife International's CFO has full access to the accounting records at the grantee organization. Additionally, on a regular basis grant reports are submitted to Biglife International for review and approval by the CFO and Accounting Manager and to verify that the expenditures are in compliance with the stated grant purpose.
