Part IV

Supporting Organizations (continued)

	Yes	No
11 Has the organization accepted a gift or contribution from any of the following persons?
a A person who directly or indirectly controls, either alone or together with persons described in lines 11b and 11c below, the governing body of a supported organization?
b A family member of a person described in 11a above?
c A 35% controlled entity of a person described in line 11a or 11b above? If "Yes" to 11a, 11b, or 11c, provide detail in Part VI.

Section B. Type I Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the officers, directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year.
2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.

Section C. Type II Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Were a majority of the organization's directors or trustees during the tax year also a majority of the directors or trustees of each of the organization's supported organization(s)? If "No," describe in Part VI how control or management of the supporting organization was vested in the same persons that controlled or managed the supported organization(s).

Section D. All Type III Supporting Organizations

	Yes	No
1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided?
2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).
3 By reason of the relationship described in line 2 above, did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? Client Note 1	Client Note 1 - Headwaters Economics 2020 Form 990 Accomplishments Headwaters Economics staff delivered more than 30 public talks, briefings, and presentations to the public, elected officials, agencies, and others throughout the year. Two new nationwide, interactive, web-based tools were created. Twelve newsletters were published in 2020. In addition, Headwaters Economics produced original research, data visualizations, and reports on topics core to its mission. Equity Disadvantaged populations are more likely to experience adverse social, health, and economic outcomes due to race, age, gender, poverty status, and other socioeconomic measures. In addition, understanding the impacts of climate change is important to reducing vulnerabilities and building resilient communities and economies. Projects in 2020 included: - Updated nationwide data for Populations at Risk - A free, online tool that creates reports about populations more likely to experience adverse social, health, or economic outcomes. - Expanded Neighborhoods at Risk - A free, online climate-risk planning tool to the entire nation. The web-based data and maps are used for presentations, grant proposals, planning decisions, shaping land use, or prioritizing capital improvements. - Built interactive, live data visualizations to help identify locations where census response rates were low in Black, Hispanic and Latino, Asian, and Native American communities. - Produced a report showing counties with high proportions of senior citizens and lack of access to hospitals. - Produced an interactive data visualization showing where food insecurity is highest in America. Outdoor Recreation Access to trails and outdoor recreation is an important part of local economies, attracting businesses and drawing in new residents and visitors. Our research analyzes the scope and scale of the outdoor recreation economy and how communities can benefit from trails. Projects in 2020 included: - Wrote a report examining the affordability of housing in rural recreation communities and published an accompanying visualization showing housing affordability in context for all U.S. counties. - Produced reports for the states of New Mexico and Wisconsin detailing the role of outdoor recreation in their economies. - Produced a report showing the economic benefits of the proposed Merced River Trail in Mariposa County, California. Public Lands Protected federal lands are important economic assets that attract people and businesses, as well as new jobs and income. Our research helps communities understand the implications of nearby public lands. Projects in 2020 included: - Hosted and upgraded user interfaces for three free, web-based tools for federal land management agencies, including the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service Socioeconomic Profile Tool, the Bureau of Land Management Socioeconomic Profile Tool, and the National Forest Socioeconomic Profile Tool. These tools are designed to help government agency land managers, economists, planners, citizens, and others

Client Note 1	explore socioeconomic conditions near federal land management units. Provided analysis to the Bears Ears Intertribal Coalition on the economic value of national monuments. Economic Development As the economy changes, understanding major drivers of change is critical to making sound decisions about how to improve economic performance. Projects in 2020 included: Hosted and updated the online Economic Profile System (EPS) with the latest statistics from federal data sources. This free online tool produces customized socioeconomic reports for communities, counties, states, and regions. Economic Development (continued) Posted a report about the health and fiscal vulnerability of rural recreation counties. Posted a series of reports about the changing geography and makeup of U.S. electricity generation capacity. Developed and updated an interactive data visualization showing monthly, county-level unemployment numbers related to the COVID-19 pandemic. Produced an analysis of the economic specialization and changing demographics of rural communities. Tax Policy Tax policies create incentives and disincentives. Our research helps local leaders and state and federal policymakers understand their long-term impacts. Projects in 2020 included: Wrote a report about the failure of fiscal policy to support rural America. Produced a briefing about the potential for a federal land endowment. Natural Hazards Wildfires, floods, and other climate-related disasters are becoming more extensive and costly as the climate changes. Our research helps communities understand where people may be vulnerable and how to reduce risk. Projects in 2020 included: Collaborated with the U.S. Forest Service to produce Wildfire Risk to Communities, a nationwide, interactive website with information to help communities understand, explore, and reduce wildfire risk. The website includes a custom application with charts and maps of wildfire risk for all U.S. communities, counties, and states. Managed the Community Planning Assistance for Wildfire (CPAW) program. Funded through the U.S. Forest Service and private foundations, CPAW works with communities across the country to provide technical assistance such as land use planning, forestry expertise, and risk assessments. Delivered final wildfire risk-reduction recommendations to six CPAW communities in California, Colorado, Oregon, Florida, and Montana after working with local staffs for a year. Testified about wildfire, vulnerable populations, and mitigation strategies to the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Natural Resources and to the Oregon House Natural Resources Subcommittee. Produced several original research reports on wildfire on topics including preparing for wildfire during a pandemic, the history of wildfire suppression and U.S. wildfire policy, and the growing Montana wildfire risk. Produced interactive data visualizations showing communities threatened by wildfire and destructive fires over time. Produced original research reports on
