Return Reference	Explanation
Part I Line 2	The grant process is as follows an application is filled out for a project with the amount of the cost for the project and what the details of the project that the money will be used for. The board ranks the grants using a rubric of points. The grants are awarded. We have hired Rosann Fillmore to do the paperwork for the grants that are awarded. We keep track of it with Rosann and she fills out the necessary paperwork for the Forest Service money that is granted out. Rosann monitors what grants are processed with what money. The president and the secretary field all questions of what happens during the project and complies all the paperwork for the projects and gets them to Rosann for final payments.
