Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:

Project Canvas exists to provide a space for people to be able to gather and accomplish their dreams. By creating this space, we draw resources, people and revitalization to downtown Aurora. We will be a creative destination that fuels creativity, inspires its participants and provides a social setting that connects people. We serve people from Aurora and the surrounding communities, helping to bring additional revenue into the city, while also empowering people to become who they've been created to be.

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The building has completed construction, allowing for the mission to be accomplished. Project Canvas exists to provide a space for people to be able to gather and accomplish their dreams. By creating this space, we draw resources, people and revitalization to downtown Aurora. We will be a creative destination that fuels creativity, inspires its participants and provides a social setting that connects people. We serve people from Aurora and the surrounding communities, helping to bring additional revenue into the city, while also empowering people to become who they've been created to be.
