Facts And Circumstances Test

Part IV Section D Line 3 The treasurer of the supported organization is the treasurer and the investment committee chair of the organization. Investment policies were presented to the committee by the investment committee chair and subsequently approved by the board. In addition to overseeing the investments of the organization, the supported organizations health and human service program officer oversees the discussion with the organizations board regarding the annual distribution of assets for the health care grants.

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV Section E Line 2a	The supported organization receives more health care related grant requests than its available assets to distribute. Because the organizations sole mission and purpose is to assist the supported organization in conducting its health care activities, the organization is responsive and allows the supported organizations health and human service program officer to oversee its health care grantmaking process.

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV Section E Line 2a	To be efficient and effective, the organization established a donor-advised fund at the supported organization who publicizes the availability of grants from the fund and allows the organization to use its online grant portal to gather applications. The organization makes one grant to the donor-advised fund. The supported organization distributes the grants to the grantees that were recommended by the supported organization and approved by the organizations board from the donor-advised fund.

990 Schedule A, Supplemental Information
Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV Section E Line 2a	Review of board minutes detail the organizations activity. The activity is related to health care grantmaking and required board governance such as minutes and policy approvals.
