Active Cultures is a nonprofit cultural organization that explores the convergence of food and art in contemporary life. We are a Los Angelesbased nonprofit dedicated to the artistic exploration of our global foodwaysthe attitudes, practices, and rituals around what we consume. illuminate global foodways and feed experimental artistic practice simultaneously, to build stronger connections of empathy, curiosity, and care among us all. Our central purpose is to amplify the significant impact that foodways have on the world. We not only commission work by a diverse community of artists and chefs, but also convene a rich network of food workers, scholars, and activists around some of the most pressing issues of our time.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Throughout each program season, we offer food and foodways a rich platform and broad cultural framework, while using food to gather people and make an accessible space for contemporary art and culture. Each of our programs begin with a central collaboration by a cook or an artist often both, and is enriched by a variety of activities, including performances, workshops, conversations, meals, and projects.
