Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

In 2020 the DPPF supported ten young sports photographers with grants for career development. There was a free open call for submissions, and the recipients represented the top 4% of the competitive application field. The DPPF promoted the acceptance of entries for its inaugural grants program with email recruitment and web/social media promotion. Industry leaders representing major sports photography wire services and publications provided the basis of the network for spreading the word. Grants were used by the recipients to further their emerging careers through purchases of critical equipment and defraying of career-related travel. Three of the top grantees also received year-long mentorships with members of the DPPF's Advisory Board.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Grant recipients are required by contract to submit an accounting of how the grant monies were used for career development and training purposes: Grantee agrees that the funds will be used for career development purposes, including equipment, supplies, training, and travel expenses directly related to Grantee's photography career. Grantee shall not use any portion of the funds for any purpose not allowed under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, such as using them to influence the outcome of any public election. Grantee will submit to the DPPF an accounting of the usage of the funds and a narrative write up of how the grant assisted the Grantee's career, which Grantee acknowledges may be used publicly to promote the DPPF grant program and may be shared with both past and future donors, the DPPF board of directors, potential applicants for DPPF grants, and other parties affiliated with the DPPF or its operations or activities. Any grant funds that have not been used for career development purposes by September 1, 2021 or for purposes permitted under section 501(c)(3) must be returned promptly to the DPPF. If the DPPF should learn that Grantee received the grant through misconduct, such as submitting the work of others in the grant application, the Grantee must return the full amount of the grant.
