Name: THE DONOR ALLIANCE FOUNDATION

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Education. The Donor Alliance Foundation provides funding in education about donation and transplantation as a pathway for resources and access to services through nonprofit community health-serving organizations, federally qualified health centers, governmental agencies and other nonprofit service providers.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Family Assistance. The Donor Alliance Foundation provides funding for grief assistance and compassion support for donor families through nonprofit community health serving organizations; other nonprofit organizations doing work with donation and transplantation. It will meet the needs of people or families requiring assistance, who are waiting for a transplant through food vouchers, housing and medication assistance, etc. and the needs of people or families requiring assistance post-transplant. It will aim to meet the needs of living donors and potential living donors through food vouchers, housing assistance, etc. and provide funding to social workers to support people or families requiring assistance with housing, medication, food, etc.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Research. The Donor Alliance Foundation provides funding for social and clinical research and technology to support advancements and innovation in the field of organ donation and transplantation. Given the amount of dollars available, typically these are seed grants to gather data and information to apply for larger, national funding.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Applicants are initially screened by The Foundation's Executive Director to verify 501c3 status, good financial standing and documents required are submitted. Applicants are then evaluated based on pre-determined criteria by a panel of reviewers, who rank and discuss each application leading to a final vote by The Foundation Board of Directors. The Executive Director notifies the applicant via a formal award letter and grant application, which details the terms of the grant. Once the application is returned, funds are released. As outlined in the grant agreement, grantees are responsible for providing both a Mid-Year and Year-End Report explaining what worked, what changed and how funds were spent. At any time during the grant cycle, project directors can contact the Executive Director (or vice versa) to discuss challenges or changes to the grant timeline or scope of work. All grantee reports are kept on file by the Executive Director.
