Part III Line 30, Special community programs: In response to covid and the downsides of too much Zoom time Compass Arts developed multiple self-directed multi-week learning experiences complete with provided art materials, planned self-guided excursions, guidance videos, and weekly meetings that reached roughly 40 to 50 students and drew grant and individual donations of support. These programs met early learning standards while focusing on social emotional development and providing resources for families to navigate the stresses of learning during a pandemic. Due to financial support received we were able to provide 5 sponsored spots to young students. Grant funding enabled us to create art bags for students in the Beacon City school who receive free food distribution on Wednesdays through the school. Additionally, Compass Arts partnered with the City of Beacon Recreation Department to offer a free family concert series at the local Pete and Toshi Seeger park that reached hundreds of attendees.

Part III Line 30, Other: Before Compass Arts let go of our commercial space in April 2020 we were able to offer area artists a venue for a few experimental arts or health-related programs for the community and parents a space in which to throw a few arts education-themed parties.

Dear IRS; attention: Collett Watkins,

I am writing to provide a reasonable cause explanation in response to your attached letter dated September 2, 2021.

In examining the 2020 Form 990-EZ I see numerous places where prompts are given to make it clear when or if one of the schedules is required to be filled-in and attached. Examples of this can be found in question 8 ("describe in Schedule O"), question 35c ("if 'Yes,' complete Schedule C"), question 36 ("complete applicable parts of Schedule N"), question 38b ("if 'Yes,' complete Schedule L"), and question 52 ("Did the organization complete Schedule A?"). This is a fraction of the number of schedule prompts given throughout Form 990-EZ. In total, I count 10 verbal prompts for Schedule O, 1 prompt for Schedule N, 3 prompts for Schedule C, 2 prompts for Schedule L, 1 prompt for Schedule E, and 1 prompt for Schedule A among various other prompts within Form 990-EZ to inform filers of related forms that may be required or if Form 990 must be utilized instead of Form 990-EZ. I do not see such a prompt for Schedule B next to question 1 on Form 990-EZ.

Additionally, when examining the instructions for Form 990-EZ, line 1 (found at <https://www.irs.gov/instructions/i990ez>) the only mention of Schedule B I am able to find is towards the end of section B. What Isn't Included on Line 1?

I understand that instructions regarding Schedule B and when it is required are present in the general instructions for Form 990-EZ and that box H at the top of Form 990-EZ refers to Schedule B. However, the lack of a prompt next to line 1 and there being no subsequent mention of Schedule B throughout the rest of Form 990-EZ seems inconsistent with the diligent reminders regarding other required forms given elsewhere throughout Form 990-EZ. Since this was only the first year during which we utilized Form 990-EZ to report anything other than across-the-board zeros (our first filing for 2019 exhibited that we were not yet operational) I want to request leniency with regard to penalties for an incomplete filing. It was clearly my mistake for not realizing Schedule B was required but I hope you will take into account the inconsistency of prompts in Form 990-EZ.

I should also point out that your letter, which appears to be dated September 2, 2021 states:

"To avoid penalties, we must receive your complete and accurate return within 10 days of the date of this letter."

However, your letter was postmarked 9/16/2021 (see attached photo of outside of mailing) and I received the letter on September 21, 2021. In spite of responding to this within an hour of receiving your letter (including examining the issues raised, completing a Schedule B, composing this letter and finalizing the revised return for mailing) the possibility of getting our adjusted return back to you by September 12, four days before your letter was even postmarked, could not exist. In relation to this issue I again would like to request leniency - I have made every effort to respond quickly on this but have not been given the means to meet your stated deadline.

I have included our revised return in this mailing. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely, Andrew Reinhardt, Operating Officer, Compass Arts Creativity Project, Inc.
