Expenses (Required for section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations; optional for others.)
28 The Business Initiatives Program assisted in purchasing cows goats and chickens to begin agricultural based business initiatives. With students at home there were plenty of hands available for caring for the animals. A program called Hire a Kenyan was created in 2020. Two young men have been given the opportunity to assist with our business initiatives in return for a monthly wage. They provide valuable labor for the business initiatives in each village. They also receive valuable training in skills that will serve them well in their life. They are now able to provide for their families through their own labors. 29 Under the Water is Life Initiative No End To Love sponsors Spring Rehabilitations and Community Based Rain Harvesting Systems to provide clean accessible water to communities. This program happens in partnership with Africa Water Bank a for profit social enterprise based in Kenya. No End To Love's first Spring Rehabilitation began in Olokeri Village in the fall of 2019. Just a few weeks prior to completion in the spring of 2020 the whole country of Kenya shut down due to Covid-19. The final steps have yet to be completed due to continued lockdowns and poor weather conditions due to seasonal rains. Additional funding of $1600 was raised in 2020 for future water projects. 30 Education Initiatives Give Hope - No End To Love believes as many children as possible from one family should be educated so the whole family is given the opportunity to gain self reliance through education. In January 2020 18 students from 7 families and 2 villages were enrolled in school. School fees are paid for all terms and a school uniform is purchased once a year for each student. Due to Covid-19 students finished their 1st term in 2020 early and did not return to school until January 2021 except for 8th and 12th Grade students. Eighth and twelfth Grade students returned to school in the fall of 2020 to begin preparation for their National Exams to be taken in the spring of 2021. Community Assistance Initiatives Provide Families the Opportunity to thrive. Two garden towers were bought and planted for two widows in Sikirrar in the latter part of 2020. A Food Relief program was started in April 2020 as the coronavirus was spreading throughout the world and food became more difficult to obtain in the remote villages especially for widows and families with school age children. The families had an extra burden during this time as their children are usually fed at least one meal a day at school. This meal became the responsibility of the family to provide now the children were not in school during the week. We distributed food weekly through the rest of 2020. We have continued this program on a more limited basis in 2021 serving the widows and the poorest of the poor. (Grants $ 0) If this amount includes foreign grants, check here . . . ► ☐	3,030
