Part I Summary

Activities & Governance

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities:
International Children's Care (ICC) is dedicated to the care, education, and spiritual growth of orphaned and vulnerable children in underdeveloped countries. Children in ICC's care become part of a loving family home and are cared for by house parents who treat them as their own children. Since 1978 thousands of children in many different countries have grown up within the care of ICC and are now living successfully and independently.

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

During 2020, International Children's Care (ICC) provided funding, administrative support and supervision for the total care of close to 400 orphan and/or vulnerable children. These children received care within children's villages and projects which ICC helped to fund and construct. ICC has provided support to projects in the following countries: Guatemala, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Mexico, Dominican Republic, Colombia, Brazil, Romania, Ghana, Zambia, DR Congo, India and Myanmar. Another important part of ICC's mission is to inform individuals about the plight of orphan children and how they may become involved in their care and support. We communicate by mail -- and digital channels -- not only to generate income and maintain our base of support, but to educate the public thereby advancing our mission. As a result, in accordance with the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) guidelines, we allocate a portion of our mailing costs to program services and to fundraising.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

During 2020, International Children's Care (ICC) provided support for the operations of Instituto de Capacitacion Adventista de Peten (ICAP), a high school/college in Guatemala. ICC also provided a small amount of tuition support to enable under privileged young people to obtain an education or skill.

990 Schedule F, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule F, Part I, Line 2	International Children's Care (ICC) takes seriously the responsibility that it has for monitoring the funds it grants to charitable entities in other countries. The following procedures are in place to ensure that funds were used properly. (1) Prior to funds being transferred, ICC will ensure the receiving entity is aware of the nature of the donation and what the funds are to be used for as well as any expected procedures and reporting requirements for that particular grant. (2) Once the funds have been transferred to a project outside the US, the ICC board may make as many on-site visits as possible and necessary. This ensures accountability that things are operating according to accepted procedures. During such visits, project administration will be expected to produce financial reports, receipts and other financial information for inspection at the request of the ICC representative. The project administration must be available to review the records with the ICC representative and provide expense justification. (3) Any international project receiving ICC grants will need to prepare and submit a financial report that contains information which includes funds received from ICC. These reports are to be sent to the ICC Finance Director for review. (4) Should there be any discrepancies or concerns with a project's use of the funds, a representative selected by the board of ICC will work with the project to correct the problem as quickly as possible and to ensure compliance with the directives of ICC. (5) If there is evidence that funds were used improperly by a particular project, ICC will conduct an investigation prior to making any further grants to the project.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Once a first draft of the 990 is completed, it is distributed to each member of the board of directors for review. Comments, questions, and suggested edits are taken into consideration before a final copy is filed. After the appropriate edits or corrections are made, it is finalized with official signatures.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The ICC board of directors has approved a compensation plan that takes into consideration wage data from different sources including: the US Department of Labor, privately compiled compensation reports for the non-profit sector, other similar faith-based non-profits, and the North Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. This compensation plan for top management, key employees and all other employees with minor revisions and adjustments through time, has formed the basis for compensating employees since 2002. The Board of Directors for ICC has delegated the issue of employee compensation to the Executive Committee of the board. The Executive Committee has approved several cost of living adjustments to wages over time. There were no general salary adjustments in 2020
