Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Rescue and Restoration projects combat slavery through prevention, rescue and rehabilitation of trafficking survivors. 63,620 children and community members received training in abuse prevention. 602 women and girls became less vulnerable to trafficking through direct intervention, counseling, and income generating programs. 161 women and girls received shelter, counseling and vocational training so they can focus on building better lives for themselves. 61 girls and women were rescued from sex slavery and prostitution.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Economic Empowerment consists of vocational training and self-help groups where poor and marginalized women gain economic literacy, micro-loans and life skills. 5,312 women in self-help groups gained and applied practical life skills--including earning and saving money, receiving and paying microloans, improving health and hygiene, giving and receiving peer support. 836 women and teenagers received vocational training to start income generating activities. 422 women gained literacy skills. 346 women started new businesses. 326 women and teenage girls improved household income.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Education projects focus on at-risk children with an emphasis on educational opportunities for girls. This includes elementary schools, non-formal educational programs, and help for low-income families to keep children in school. 14,279 at-risk children and teenagers were set on a path toward a brighter future through education, personal care and improved nutrition.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All employees are required to promptly disclose to an officer any situation that may involve or give the appearance of involving a conflict of interest. The specific situation will be reviewed and, if deemed to represent a potential or actual conflict, will be presented to the Chief Executive Officer for whatever action may be appropriate. All transactions involving board members, senior management, and others in leadership positions must be reported and approved by the board in advance. The audit committee of the board performs an annual review of potential and known related party transactions through annual conflict of interest questionnaires. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the interested party would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The independent Board of Directors annually sets compensation for the President/CEO and Executive Vice-President International.
