Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Buckelew offers a range of housing and support for adults and young adults with mental illness in Marin, Sonoma and Napa Counties. Clients may live in 24-hour staffed group homes, in semi-independent, shared housing, or in their own apartments. Staff teaches independent living skills and helps clients improve their self-sufficiency and quality of life. For those experiencing a mental health crisis, Casa Rene offers support in a home-like setting. Because of our wrap-around services, still over 90% of our housing clients in Marin, Sonoma and Napa managed their mental health without needing to go to the hospital and maintained their community living. 154 people received short-term housing with intensive mental health services as an alternative to psychiatric hospitalization at Casa Rene. Buckelew Programs' Helen Vine Recovery Center is a licensed 26-bed co-ed residential detoxification program in San Rafael that provides welcoming, recovery-oriented detox services to individuals with alcohol and drug addiction issues and co-occurring psychiatric problems. In 2018, the program moved into a new facility. With the support of staff, 880 clients took their first steps towards sobriety. Over 75% of the clients were referred to long-term treatment, sober living, and other housing or outpatient services. Buckelew Program's Counseling Services include individual and group psychotherapy, mental health screening, and in-home bi-lingual parenting support. Buckelew Programs' Suicide Prevention & Community Counseling (SP&CC) 24-hour crisis hotline offers immediate and confidential support for people experiencing a suicidal crisis. Part of the North Bay Suicide Prevention Program, the hotline staff includes highly trained volunteers and currently serves Marin, Sonoma, Lake and Mendocino Counties. SP&CC also provides grief counseling and community education. Hotline volunteers answered 13,100 calls from people in crisis. Buckelew Employment Services partners with employers in Marin County to provide job placement, training and employment support to clients with mental health and/or substance use issues. Staff matches clients with the jobs that fit their interest and helps develop their skills and confidence. Buckelew's Sonoma County Family Service Coordination (FSC) Team provides support, education and system navigation to families, friends, caregivers and allies who are supporting a loved one of any age living with mental health and/or substance use challenges. All services provided can be accessed directly by the supporter and or their loved one and all services are free of charge. The Family Service Coordination Team provided services to 1,524 individuals and families through group and individual support in the last fiscal year.

| 1 Did the officers, directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year. |     |    |
| 2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |    |

| 1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided? |     |    |
| 2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).                                                                                                                      |     |    |
| 3 By reason of the relationship described in line 2 above, did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.                                                                                 |     |    |

| Part X, Line 2:  | Buckelew is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by Buckelew in their federal and state exempt organizations on tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Buckelew's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed. |

| Part I, Line 2:  | The Finance department records and monitors restricted grants and then works with the relevant managers to monitor the spending and release of the grant. The Finance department performs monthly checks with the relevant managers and the Development department to ensure that the restricted grant is being utilized in the manner intended by the donor. Once the grant is fully expended then the Development department provides a report to the donor (if requested). Buckelew's external auditors perform annual checks to ensure that grants are being released correctly. Client meals are provided free of charge to clients in our residential programs. As part of re-integrating clients into their communities, Buckelew provides clients with pre-vocational work activities and in return pays a very small stipend to the client. |

| Form 990,Part VI,Section B,line 15 | Buckelew Programs strives to attract and retain the highest quality, dedicated leadership talent to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) position. Using periodic salary surveys provided by the Director of Human Resources, the Executive Committee will review and recommend the salary and benefits for the CEO. Annually, after the completion of the CEO's performance evaluation, the Executive Committee shall review and revise the CEO's compensation package as is deemed appropriate. The Executive Committee shall make a recommendation of the CEO's compensation package to the Board of Directors. The recommendation shall include: A) Specific terms of the compensation package B) The recommendation date C) The names of the members of the committee who reviewed and recommended the compensation package D) The rationale used in making the compensation decision E) Any disclosures of conflict of interest The policy and procedures for the compensation of the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer (CFAO) are consistent with the policy and procedures of the compensation of the CEO. Buckelew Programs routinely conducts salary surveys, which are an integral part of the process for the determination of compensation throughout the organization. |
