Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Capital for Good USA and CFG Impact offers donor's innovative, flexible, and efficient ways to contribute to life changing projects. This methodology enables donor's the option to fund individually or collaboratively to leverage funds and impact. We achieve this mission by partnering with the most capable organizations, especially community-based ones who are located within the U.S. and internationally, to achieve the best results for all stakeholders. During this past shortened fiscal year, CFG helped transition a fiscal sponsor client, Financing Alliance for Health, into its own 501 c 3 operations after successfully supporting its build up for 3 years. We have continued to support education work in Ethiopia called Speed School. Speed School is an accelerated education program that brings out-of-school children aged 9 to 14 back into formal education. Delivering the first three years of primary schooling in ten months, the program regularly sends over 90% of the enrolled children on to government primary school, where they routinely excel. Speed School succeeds by addressing a range of factors such as quality of instruction, relevance of the curriculum, parental engagement, and financial hurdles, among others. For more detailed information about this program go to our program implementation partner's website: <https://www.genevaglobal.com/education-home>. The Girls First Fund (GFF) - We are a donor collaborative supported by leading philanthropic organizations and individual philanthropists who have come together to champion community-led efforts so that all girls can live free from child marriage and create their own future. The Girls First Fund has a goal of catalyzing CBOs to end child marriage while increasing gender equality in communities by 2030. To achieve this goal, Girls First fund is pursuing three primary objectives to ensure that there is: i) increased donor commitment; ii) CBOs are supported; and iii) grantmaking is effective. Girls First Fund completed its second year of granting - supporting 177 community-driven grantee partners across six countries and continuing to provide mentoring and accompaniment, connecting, and influencing support. 85% of GFF's grantee partners are women-led organizations and 66% are community-based organizations. GFF also began implementing its Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning (MEL) strategy, which involved integrating MEL approaches and data collection into our grantmaking processes and identifying and working alongside an external evaluation partner. We worked to gather insights from grantee partners, funders, internal team members, and other actors in the ecosystem to articulate our expansion strategy. Despite the pandemic our programs have continued to operate through hard work and innovative ideas that are created through the strong collaborations built by our implementing partners, government organizations, donors, and the programming staff. Their resiliency during this past year has resulted in continued progress for all the CFG programmatic initiatives.

| 1 Did the officers, directors, trustees, or membership of one or more supported organizations have the power to regularly appoint or elect at least a majority of the organization's directors or trustees at all times during the tax year? If "No," describe in Part VI how the supported organization(s) effectively operated, supervised, or controlled the organization's activities. If the organization had more than one supported organization, describe how the powers to appoint and/or remove directors or trustees were allocated among the supported organizations and what conditions or restrictions, if any, applied to such powers during the tax year. |     |    |
| 2 Did the organization operate for the benefit of any supported organization other than the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised, or controlled the supporting organization? If "Yes," explain in Part VI how providing such benefit carried out the purposes of the supported organization(s) that operated, supervised or controlled the supporting organization.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |     |    |

| 1 Did the organization provide to each of its supported organizations, by the last day of the fifth month of the organization's tax year, (i) a written notice describing the type and amount of support provided during the prior tax year, (ii) a copy of the Form 990 that was most recently filed as of the date of notification, and (iii) copies of the organization's governing documents in effect on the date of notification, to the extent not previously provided? |     |    |
| 2 Were any of the organization's officers, directors, or trustees either (i) appointed or elected by the supported organization (s) or (ii) serving on the governing body of a supported organization? If "No," explain in Part VI how the organization maintained a close and continuous working relationship with the supported organization(s).                                                                                                                             |     |    |
| 3 By reason of the relationship described in line 2 above, did the organization's supported organizations have a significant voice in the organization's investment policies and in directing the use of the organization's income or assets at all times during the tax year? If "Yes," describe in Part VI the role the organization's supported organizations played in this regard.                                                                                        |     |    |

| a Did substantially all of the organization's activities during the tax year directly further the exempt purposes of the supported organization(s) to which the organization was responsive? If "Yes," then in Part VI identify those supported organizations and explain how these activities directly furthered their exempt purposes, how the organization was responsive to those supported organizations, and how the organization determined that these activities constituted substantially all of its activities. |  |  |
| b Did the activities described in line 2a constitute activities that, but for the organization's involvement, one or more of the organization's supported organization(s) would have been engaged in? If "Yes," explain in Part VI the reasons for the organization's position that its supported organization(s) would have engaged in these activities but for the organization's involvement.                                                                                                                          |  |  |

| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 | Capital for Good USA is exempt from Federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, no provision or liability for income taxes has been recorded in the consolidated financial statements. The Organization has no unrecognized tax benefits at June 30, 2021 and September 30, 2020. The Organization has no income tax related penalties or interest for the period reported in these consolidated financial statements. U.S. GAAP requires management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Organization and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Organization, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2021 and September 30, 2020, there were no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization had no unrecognized benefits at June 30, 2021 and September 30, 2020 and has incurred no interest or penalties related to income taxes for the periods presented in the financial statements. |
