Name: The Kansas University Endowment Association

Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Program and other educational support from private donors strengthens academic programs and brings top-flight scholars, thoughtful lecturers and breathtaking performances to KU. It also expands the scope of outreach programs throughout the state and supports valuable acquisitions by KU's libraries and museums.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Faculty support includes over 200 named, endowed positions, including 9 new faculty support funds endowed during this fiscal year. Private funding augments salaries and supports awards, professional travel and professional development. This support is invaluable in creating the vibrant teaching and research environment that one expects at an international research university.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Student Support - Virtually all privately funded scholarships, awards and fellowships provided by KU come from donor contributions to KU Endowment. This year, 82 new endowed scholarship and student support funds were created and about 8,200 students received financial assistance from privately funded scholarships at KU Endowment.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Travel for companions	Regarding travel for companions, KU Endowment's written guidelines are as follows, "for spouse expenses to be reimbursable, the expense must be required by your supervisor and it is expected that the event in which your spouse is included will include spouses of guests, and both requirements should be stated on the reimbursement request." In keeping with this policy, travel expenses are reimbursed, and not treated as compensation, for a spouse to accompany an officer to assist in a volunteer capacity with donor development at several events, which also required attendance by the officer.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a Health or social club dues or initiation fees	Country club dues were paid on behalf of two officers and two highly compensated employees to promote fundraising efforts. These amounts are treated as compensation to these employees.
Schedule J, Part I, Line 4b Supplemental nonqualified retirement plan	The Nonqualified Retirement Plan for Employees of the Kansas University Endowment Association (the "Nonqualified Plan"), is a supplemental nonqualified retirement plan described in Internal Revenue Code section 457(f) that provides benefits in excess of the limits imposed by Internal Revenue Code sections 401(a)(17) and 415 under The Kansas University Endowment Association's qualified retirement plan. A participant's Nonqualified Plan benefit vests on the earlier of the participant's attainment of age 65 or termination of employment without cause, and the benefit is paid in a lump sum within 60 days following the participant's termination of employment. During the year, three executive officers participated in the Nonqualified Plan and had deferred benefits reported in Sch. J, Part II, column C in the amounts of $27,135 for Dale Seuferling, $3,368 for James G. Clarke, and $1,005 for D. Jerome Davies. Upon reaching age 65, Dale Seuferling became vested in the nonqualified plan and accrued tax reportable benefit in the amount of $1,398,542 during the year, as reported in Sch. J, Part II, column B(iii). He continues to be employed at KU Endowment. No other participants became vested.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Review of form 990 by governing body	Form 990 is prepared internally by the Tax Compliance Manager. An internal review of the return is completed by appropriate KU Endowment personnel. An external tax preparer then completes a review of the return. A draft copy of Form 990 is provided to the audit committee to review and recommend revisions. Any such recommendations are provided in a timely manner to incorporate them in the return before transmittal to the IRS. The audit committee reviews the 990 on behalf of the governing body (the executive committee) and recommends approval of the 990 by the executive committee. The final version of the 990 is placed on the trustee intranet for the executive committee to review prior to filing. After transmittal of the final return to the IRS, a copy of the return is placed on the organization's public website.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Conflict of interest policy	An annual conflict of interest disclosure is requested from all current members of the Executive Committee, members of committees with Executive Committee-delegated powers, officers and key employees. To monitor and enforce compliance with the conflict of interest policy, the following procedures have been established: 1. Duty to Disclose a. In connection with any actual or possible conflicts of interest, an interested person must promptly disclose the existence and all material facts about the nature of his or her financial interests to the Executive Committee or the other members of committees with Executive Committee-delegated powers prior to such committee authorizing or approving KU Endowment or one of its subsidiaries entering into or negotiating a proposed transaction or arrangement. b. Unless previously disclosed in accordance with this Policy, in connection with any actual or possible conflicts of interest, an interested person must promptly disclose the existence and all material facts about the nature of his or her financial interests to the Executive Committee or the President of KU Endowment whenever such person becomes aware that (i) KU Endowment or one of its subsidiaries already has an existing transaction or arrangement in which such interested person has or is acquiring a financial interest or (ii) the Executive Committee, a committee with Executive Committee-delegated authority or any officer of KU Endowment or one of its subsidiaries is deliberating about or deciding whether to take an action or to refrain from taking an action with respect to a transaction or arrangement with respect to which such interested person has a financial interest. 2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists After disclosure of the financial interest, the interested person shall leave, or not attend, as the case may be, any portion of a meeting of the Executive Committee or committee with Executive Committee-delegated powers while the financial interest is discussed and voted upon by the remaining members of such committee. The remaining Executive Committee members or committee members, as the case may be, shall decide if a conflict of interest exists and, if so, will address it. 3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest a. The chairperson of the Executive Committee or committee with Executive Committee-delegated powers shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement or, in the case of an existing transaction or arrangement, taking or refraining from taking an action with respect to such existing transaction or arrangement. b. After exercising due diligence, the Executive Committee or committee with Executive Committee-delegated powers shall determine whether KU Endowment can obtain a more advantageous transaction or arrangement with reasonable efforts from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. c. If a more adva

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Process to establish compensation of top management official	Compensation of officers and such other persons as designated by the executive committee shall be determined by the compensation committee and be confirmed by the executive committee. The executive committee may adjust compensation determined by the compensation committee whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of KU Endowment would be served thereby. A compensation committee of not less than five nor more than eight trustees shall be appointed annually by the chair of the executive committee. The chair of the executive committee shall designate one compensation committee member as chair. A majority in number of the committee shall constitute a quorum. The compensation committee must consist of individuals who (I) do not have a conflict of interest with respect to compensation arrangements or transactions; (II) have obtained and relied upon appropriate data as to comparability prior to making any determination; and (III) adequately document the basis for committee decisions concurrently with making determinations. The committee is directed to act in a manner that will avoid the intermediate sanctions provisions of the internal revenue code. Its duties shall be the review, study and recommendation of reasonable and necessary compensation for officers and employees of KU Endowment and any and all such additional functions as may from time to time be designated by the executive committee.
