Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Instruction and Academic Support - Central Christian College of Kansas is a four-year Liberal Arts college providing higher education opportunities leading to one of 18 degrees in 37 major areas. In fiscal year 2021, the College started their first master's program, offering a degree in Strategic Leadership. Instruction and library services are provided for 593 full-time and 50 part-time undergraduate students and 18 graduate students. Courses are taught by 16 full-time instructors and 49 who are part-time. Nearly 50% of the students attending Central Christian College of Kansas receive some type of scholarship.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Student Services - The student services arm of Central Christian College of Kansas actively provides services to all students in the area of academic advising, career guidance, counseling, residence life, student government and intercollegiate athletics. The administration of the financial aid office is an important function under the student services program. The admissions office also operates under this program to ensure a steady enrollment of new students at the college. The various intercollegiate athletics are a vital part of student services because a large majority of the enrolled students are athletes.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Auxiliary Enterprises - Central Christian College of Kansas is a residential campus and operates four dormitories and a food service facility. These housing and food services are provided to 290 students, approximately 49% of the full-time enrollment. A snack bar, coffee shop, campus store and some recreational facilities are available to students.
