Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2:	The Institute follows the accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Institute may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Institute and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income. The tax benefits recognized in the consolidated financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the reporting periods covered by these consolidated financial statements. The Institute files Forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the State of Illinois. The Institute is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before fiscal 2018.

Part I, Line 2:	The grant funds awarded are to be applied only toward tuition and are not disbursed directly to the recipients. The organization has an internal account with Northwestern University. Information noting how much each recipient is to receive in grant funds per quarter is submitted online through Northwestern's Student Enterprise System and Northwestern debits The Family Institute's account for the expense over the course of the school year. Northwestern then applies the funds directly to the students' financial account.
