Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

After School Extended Learning Day Program (ELD): Approximately 75 students, grades 4th-8th, participate in the ELD Program, after school tutoring program with an emphasis on literacy, writing skills, math and homework support. Paid Teachers work with grade groups and provide subject specific skill building, homework completion support and promote college aspirations through grade appropriate curriculum.ELD teachers also serve as student advocates, partnering with the students' school teachers to determine the areas of focus which would help the students perform better at school. Regular weekly volunteers serve as tutors and mentors to the students. One on One assistance is provided with both subject matter tutoring as well as homework completion. All students showed academic progress in at least one of the core subjects of Math or Language Arts.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

After School High School Program: This program serves approximately 66 students in grades 9-12. The Program meets 4 nights/week, Mon-Thurs, 3:30-7:00. Three credentialed teachers each night provide subject specific instruction and homework support. Teachers are also students' advocates and communicate with school district teachers as well to work on their student's specific needs. Volunteer tutors provide one to one academic help and mentoring. 100% of the high school students who participated in our High School Program have graduated from high school, and attended college or other post-secondary academic programs.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

One on One Evening Tutoring Program: This is our longest running program, serving approximately 64 students, grades 1st-8th grade during the academic year. The program meets twice a week, and volunteer tutors provide one-on-one tutoring and mentoring for the students to assist with both subject matter work as well as homework. Volunteer tutors are matched with one student for the school year, and meet with their student one night each week. Two paid teachers are each responsible for a grade group of tutor/student pairs and provide tutor training and supplement the academic support provided to the student. Teachers are also students' advocates and communicate with school district teachers as well to help the tutor work on their student's specific needs.
