Name: Rhode Island Hospital Foundation

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4: Intended uses of the endowment fund.	Rhode Island Hospital Foundation's (RIHF) endowment funds have been established for a variety of purposes, including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by RIHF to function as endowments. RIHF's largest permanently restricted endowment generates income which is donor-designated to support critical components necessary to create a collaborative and synergistic environment to better treat and unravel the mysteries of the brain and nervous system via the Norman Prince Neurosciences Institute at RIH. RIHF maintains another large permanently restricted endowment fund, the income from which defrays the cost of charity care provided by RIH. Income from RIHF's other notable permanently restricted endowments supports: (1) HCH's Child Protection Program in its provision of services to a abused and neglected children; (2) nursing education; and (3) pediatric asthma and allergy care. The largest temporarily restricted funds held by RIHF are used to support: (1) pediatric capital expansion/renovation needs, as well as patient care program support (most notably pediatric clinics), ("Every Child, Every Day CampaignX and Children's Miracle Network"); (2) Brain Science Research at RIH, which includes support of the Brain Tissue Resource Center and the Norman Prince Neurosciences Institute; and (3) research related to the investigation of the role of epigenetics in adult malignant glioma. Other significant temporarily restricted funds of RIHF sustain clinical shared chairs with The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University in cardiothoracic surgery, orthopedics, urology, emergency medicine, and oncology. RIHF's unrestricted endowment is available to be used for various needs of RIH as determined by RIHF's Board and to partially defray RIHF's fundraising expenses, primarily incurred for services purchased from Lifespan Corporation.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X : FIN48 Footnote	RIHF is a not-for-profit corporation as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) and is exempt from Federal income taxes pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code. RIHF recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon settlement. Changes in measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. RIHF did not recognize the effect of any income tax positions in either 2021 or 2020.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2b - Fundraiser Additional Information	Name of Professional Fundraiser - Children's Miracle Network (CMN) Hospitals. RIHF is a member of the CMN, a non-profit organization established in 1983 that raises funds for children's hospitals in the U.S. and Canada, medical research, and community awareness of children's health issues, supporting the health of 10 million children each year. CMN's purposes are fundraising for the benefit of sick and injured children and youth, generating awareness programs concerning the health care needs of children and the institutions and people who care for them, and generating educational programs to promote good health care practices for children and youth. Through RIHF's membership in the CMN, RIHF receives a portion of the funds raised through CMN's fundraising efforts. On a quarterly basis, CMN withholds a portion of these proceeds as a fundraising fee and the remaining amount of fundraising proceeds is distributed to RIHF. In addition to the fundraising fee withheld from proceeds raised, RIHF pays an annual membership fee to CMN. The annual membership fee and quarterly variable collection fees paid by RIHF to CMN during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2021 amounted to $131,230. RIHF's quarterly payments to CMN also include reimbursement to CMN for various other fundraising expenses such as fundraising campaign kits, public awareness materials, registration fees, and fees associated with collecting proceeds via credit card. RIHF receives invoices for these expenses and reimburses CMN for its incurred costs.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	RIHF engages in philanthropic activities to support the mission and purposes of Rhode Island Hospital (RIH), a related 501(c)(3) organization (which includes its pediatric division, Hasbro Children's Hospital). During the fiscal year ended September 30, 2021, RIHF made temporarily restricted net asset transfers to RIH amounting to $15,913,950 to be spent by RIH in support of certain building and equipment additions or specified clinical programs. A master database of RIH's temporarily restricted funds is maintained as the primary source for identifying each fund's restriction, the availability of the current balance, and the authorized personnel for the respective fund. The database contains the fund's name, primary reporting department, most recent month end balance, fund purpose/restriction, and the management responsible for the fund. Expenditures (purchase requisitions, work order requisitions, check requests, and employee reimbursements) from RIH's temporarily restricted funds must be presented to the Lifespan Finance Department for approval prior to processing. Each request is reviewed to ensure the availability of funds and that the expense/purchase is both in conformity with the fund's restriction and approved by the required levels of authorized personnel referenced in the database. RIHF and Brown University (Brown) have several agreements pursuant to which each entity maintains endowment funds representing 50% of certain endowment gifts which support various clinical shared chairs. Each agreement specifies a spending rate which is applied to the trailing three-year average fair value of the applicable endowment funds to arrive at an amount used to support the named professorships. Payments distributing these amounts, which are made by RIHF to Brown on a quarterly basis, totaled $431,029 in the fiscal year ended September 30, 2021. Under the terms of the agreements, Brown is required to provide an accounting to RIHF sixty days following the anniversary of each agreement.

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 7: Non-Fixed payments not listed above	The Lifespan Annual Incentive Compensation Plan provides a financial award opportunity for designated members of management, based on quantified objectives that are approved in advance by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors. A specified level of financial and non-financial performance must be met before any award is earned. The objectives vary from year to year and generally include various aspects of financial measures in addition to non-financial performance measures. For certain participants in the Annual Incentive Compensation Plan, the award opportunity is divided into two pools. The first pool represents 70% of any earned incentive award, based on the achievement of the team performance objectives. The remaining 30% pool is distributed on an individual basis to participants at the discretion of the CEO, in each case subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b: Form 990 Review Process	The preparation and filing of the Form 990 and supporting schedules is the responsibility of the Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer (EVP/CFO) and Lifespan's Finance Department. The Form 990 is prepared by the accounting staff upon completion of Lifespan's annual independent audit and is reviewed by the Corporate Services Tax Compliance Manager, the Director of Finance, and the Vice President of Finance - Corporate Services. The draft Form 990 is then provided to the EVP/CFO for final management review. Prior to filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service, a copy of the entire form is sent to RIHF's Board of Trustees in advance of its next Board meeting, at which the EVP/CFO discusses the highlights of the Form. All questions and concerns of the members of the Board are addressed by the EVP/CFO and incorporated into the Form 990 when appropriate. Once the Form 990 is complete and ready to be filed, the members of the Board are notified via email that a copy of the final version of the Form 990 is accessible through the same password-protected website portal. The EVP/CFO is authorized to file the Form 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c:	Lifespan Corporation has a Conflict of Interest Policy that is applicable to all affiliates, including RIHF, and administered by Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Department as follows: Each designated person subject to Lifespan's conflict of interest policy is required to provide Lifespan with an initial disclosure statement and thereafter an annual statement attesting that: (i) the designated person has read and is familiar with this policy, and (ii) the designated person and, to the best of his/her knowledge, family members, have not in the past engaged in, are not presently engaging in, or plan to engage in, any activity which contravenes this policy. If, at any time during the course of employment or association, a designated person has reason to believe that an existing or contemplated activity may contravene this policy, the person shall submit a full written description of the activity to the Lifespan Compliance Officer or the Office of the General Counsel to seek a determination as to whether the contemplated activity does or does not contravene this policy. If the activity in question involves either the Chief Executive Officer, the Senior Vice President and General Counsel, or a Trustee, a full written disclosure must be made to, and a determination sought from, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Lifespan Corporation. Annually, the Lifespan Compliance Officer shall review and report to the Lifespan Executive Corporate Compliance Committee and to the Lifespan Audit and Compliance Committee on the administration of this policy. Failure on the part of any designated person to comply with this policy, including failure to submit in a timely fashion the conflict of interest disclosure statement, will be grounds for removal from his/her position and/or termination of his/her employment with Lifespan.

Form 990, Part VI, Lines 15 a/b:	The following applies to Lifespan and all of its affiliates, including RIHF:EXECUTIVE COMP ENSATIONLifespan's executive compensation philosophy balances appropriate stewardship of r esources and the need to be competitive in recruiting and retaining talented individuals. It incorporates market-competitive and performance-related principles, and covers the Pres ident and CEO of Lifespan as well as other officers, senior management, and key employees. Lifespan's executive compensation program complies both with law and with contemporary et hical norms, and is administered consistent with the organization's tax-exempt status unde r Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and the avoidance of transactions s ubject to intermediate sanctions under Section 4958 of the IRC. Executive compensation is also administered consistent with Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Policy on Excess Benefit Transactions.The Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors (t he Committee), comprised of disinterested Lifespan Board members, is responsible for dilig ent oversight of executive compensation to ensure compliance with IRC requirements. Its du ties include: * Approving eligibility for participation in the executive compensation progr am * Approving changes in compensation for existing executive participants * Approving gui delines, such as salary ranges and contract terms, on appropriate levels of compensation f or other key employees * Approving new, and modifying or terminating existing, executive co mpensation plans including, but not limited to, annual incentive and executive benefit pla ns * Approving performance objectives associated with Lifespan's annual incentive plan, inc luding measuring points, and using verified actual performance relative to these objective s as a precondition to approving the payment of any awards under the plan * Authorizing per iodic performance benchmark studies to be conducted for purposes of assessing Lifespan's p erformance within the healthcare industry and the degree to which total remuneration level s at Lifespan are generally commensurate with Lifespan performance relative to healthcare industry performance * Conducting an annual performance review of Lifespan's Chief Executiv e Officer. The Chair of the Committee conducts and documents this review, based on his/her observations and interpretation of feedback from members of the Board of Directors. * Sele cting and engaging qualified, independent, third-party compensation valuation consultants that the Committee charges with rendering opinions with respect to the reasonableness and comparability of compensation as well as the comparative organizations against which compe nsation is assessed, in accordance with relevant sections of the IRC and Lifespan's execut ive compensation philosophy. Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer works closely with the Com mittee to make recommendations on the above topics and keep the Committee informed about c ontemplated compensation chang

The CEO also provides periodic updates to the Committee regarding Lifespan's performance relative to compensation-related performance objectives. The Committee's deliberations and actions are documented in minutes prepared for each meeting. PROCESS FOR DETERMINING COMPENSATION Valuation of Total Cash and Total Remuneration: No less frequently than annually, the Committee receives and reviews a total cash compensation valuation of all existing executive compensation program participants prepared by its independent compensation consultant. Annually, the Committee also receives and reviews a total remuneration valuation of all existing executive compensation participants. Base Salary Actions: The CEO recommends any salary adjustments for participants in the executive compensation program, using the results of the valuation study and his/her assessment of individual performance or other pertinent information, for the Committee's consideration. New Participants in Executive Compensation Program: With respect to compensation offers for individuals expected to participate in the executive compensation program, certain members of the Lifespan CEO's Council work with the Committee's independent compensation consultant or rely on information previously provided by the consultant to establish a range of reasonable cash compensation within which recruitment is expected to conclude through acceptance of a reasonable compensation offer.
