Form 990 (2020)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

CORE SERVICES - People with various disabilities were provided assistance in services, including, but not limited to, providing peer counseling, independent living skills training, individual and community advocacy, information and referral services, assistive technology and durable medical equipment and transportation referral services. All services were provided to individuals with disabilities in order to promote a more independent life within their respective communities or jobs. During the fiscal year ended 9/30/2021 there were 177 new or continued individuals served. Also, there were 6 individuals who received assistive technology and prothesis counseling and referrals. Also, 27 received independent living and life skills training, counseling, education advocacy, peer counseling, personal care PCA and assistance referrals 10 had vocational referrals and coaching and transportation assistance and training 14 individuals received Housing, Home Modifications and Shelter Services. Finally, there were 603 general information and referrals taken during the year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Nursing Facility Transition - Individuals with disabilities are assisted in achieving their chosen goals and objectives to transition out of a nursing facility into the community. In order to assist these individuals in their transition process, community services, resources and supports are identified and coordinated on behalf of these transitioning consumers in order to assist them in achieving their goal to live in the community. Advocacy methods are utilized when appropriate. There were 69 consumers assisted in this process with 66 successfully being transitioned out of the nursing facility. These individuals, now living in the community, in their residence of choice, receive 6 months of regular status follow-up checks, satisfaction surveys, and referral for any needed changes in their personal care plans. The agency continues their care coordination with other service partners. Additionally, all nursing facility transition consumers, whether transferred to the community, in process of transition, or remaining in the institution, are eligible for additional individual services.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

ADRC MIPPA - Provide a single point of entry for people with disabilities and or who are aging to receive Aging and Disability Services such as Benefits Counseling, Personal Care Assistance Services and more through the Southwestern Connecticut Agency on Aging.
