990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part I, Line 1	Advancing child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 1	The American Board of Pediatrics (ABP) certifies general pediatricians and pediatric subspecialists based on standards of excellence that lead to high quality health care for infants, children, and adolescents. ABP certification provides assurance to the public that a general pediatrician or pediatric subspecialist has successfully completed accredited training and fulfills the continuous evaluation requirements that encompass the six core competencies: patient care, medical knowledge, practice-based learning and improvement, interpersonal and communication skills, professionalism, and systems-based practice. The ABP's quest for excellence is evident in its rigorous evaluation process and in new initiatives undertaken that not only continually improve the standards of its certification but also advance the science, education, study, and practice of pediatrics.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4a	Initial certification in general pediatrics; board certification is a voluntary process that goes above and beyond state licensing requirements for practicing medicine. It is an ongoing commitment by a physician to continually update their knowledge in a medical specialty, like pediatrics. Since it began certifying pediatricians in 1933 through December 31, 2020, the ABP has certified 134,807 pediatricians in both general and subspecialty pediatrics. Of the 4,206 physicians who took the general pediatrics certification exam in October 2021, 74.5% percent passed. To become certified, a physician must complete an accredited residency training program in pediatrics. The director of that training program must verify that the physician is competent in all areas of practice, and then the physician can take the initial certifying exam. In addition, before a physician can take the initial certifying examination he/she must also hold a valid, unrestricted license to practice medicine. Once they have passed the initial examination, they are certified by the ABP. (See 4c below for how certification is maintained.)

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4b	Initial Certification in pediatric subspecialties: After residency, some pediatricians also go on to complete further accredited training in pediatric subspecialty fellowship programs. In addition to developing clinical expertise in their chosen subspecialty, these subspecialists participate in a core curriculum in scholarly activities and provide a scholarly work product that meets ABP requirements in order to be eligible for the initial certification in their field. The fellowship training director must verify that the physician is competent in all areas of practice within the subspecialty and has met the requirements for professionalism including maintaining a valid unrestricted medical license before the diplomate is allowed to take the initial certifying examination. Once they have passed the initial examination, they are certified as a subspecialist by the ABP. The ABP offers certification in these 15 subspecialties: Adolescent Medicine; Cardiology; Child Abuse Pediatrics; Critical Care Medicine, Developmental-Behavioral Pediatrics; Emergency Medicine; Endocrinology; Gastroenterology; Hematology-Oncology; Hospital-Medicine; Infectious Diseases; Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine; Nephrology; Pulmonology; and Rheumatology. Certification are awarded in conjunction with other specialty boards in the areas of: Hospice and Palliative Medicine; Medical Toxicology; Pediatric Transplant Hepatology; Sleep Medicine; and Sports Medicine. The number of physicians taking the exams varies, depending on the subspecialty. Pass rates for those taking the exam for the first time was 85.7% in 2021. 1,504 applied for or subspecialty examinations in fiscal year 2021 with 1,194 passing the exam and becoming certified in a subspecialty.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 4c	Continuing Certification: After their initial certification, pediatricians are enrolled in the Continuing Certification Program (formerly Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Program) which consists of four parts: 1) Professionalism 2) Life-Long Learning and Assessment, 3) Assessment of Knowledge, Judgement and Skills 4) Practice-Based Learning and Improvement . Diplomates of the American Board of Pediatrics must hold an unrestricted medical license to maintain certification. Continuing Certification requires that pediatricians take regular examinations to assess their knowledge and medical judgement. Quality Improvement (QI) activities for Continuing Certification are designed to encourage pediatricians to assess the quality of their care and adopt more efficient and effective ways to care for children. In fiscal year 2021, over 8500 external activities were approved for Continuing Certification Credit, including the renewal and/or approval of 12 new lifelong learning and self-assessment modules, 5 new online performance improvement modules (PIMS), 123 QI projects from large teams (more than 10 physicians), and 304 Small Group QI projects (10 or fewer physicians). In addition, and in response to the global pandemic, 567 COVID-19 projects were approved for Part IV Continuing Certification Credit.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The Controller prepares the Form 990, and the CFO performs a detail review of the completed return. The return is then reviewed by outside tax counsel for compliance. After this review and prior to filing, a complete copy of the Form 990 is emailed to the Officers of the Board and the Finance Committee. The Officers and the Finance Committee are asked to review the form and to forward any comments, questions, or concerns to the CFO so that they can be addressed prior to filing the return. Both the Finance Committee and full Board of Directors are e-mailed a final filing copy once the return is submitted.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The American Board of Pediatrics has a Conflict of Interest Policy covering its directors, committee appointees, officers and key employees who must review the policy annually and disclose and potential conflict of interest via a signed form. The ABP Conflict of Interest Committee reviews and monitors all conflict of interest issues. Conflicts of appointees and employees attending meetings are disclosed in the meeting agenda materials and those with conflicts do not participate in the voting on any issue where they may have a conflict of interest. The ABP also maintains a conflict of interest policy covering employees, who are required to disclose any actual or perceived conflicts of interest on an annual basis via a signed statement. These statements are reviewed by the VP for Human Resources and the President. Employees are recused from any decision-making issues where a conflict may exist.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	In 1988, the ABP began engaging an independent compensation and benefits consulting firm to assist in determining annual compensation for all ABP staff, including the President. The compensation strategy designed for the ABP emphasizes pay for performance and is based upon the systematic slotting of each ABP staff position on a grade scale. Pay for each grade is then determined by comparing each of the positions to a comparable position in the appropriate marketplace i.e. local, regional, or national depending on the job's responsibilities and its hierarchy within the organization. A range is created around each job grade and performance dictates how quickly staff advance through each grade. The full board of directors reviews the President's performance and provides written feedback to the consultant. The consultant makes a formal presentation to the Executive Committee each year, during which the compensation strategy, benchmarks, and salary recommendations are discussed. Following that presentation, the consultant meets with the executive committee in a closed session, without staff present, to discuss the results of the President's performance review, the salary benchmarks for the ABP President and physician Vice Presidents along with his recommendations for salary adjustments for these positions. The committee determines whether to approve the proposed changes. These decisions are recorded in the minutes of the meeting, which are then forwarded to the CFO for implementation.
